SLAV SHOOTS STARBED

MEJE SWENEWAFEW PROBABLY FATALLY SHOT BY JOHN PECI-TELLO NEAR COLUMBIA MINE THURSDAY.

MEN BECAME INVOLVED IN QUAR-REL OVER POSSESSION OF PET DOG AND ONE SHOOTS THE

Wounded Man is in a Precarious Condi-tion and is Not Expected to Live: Pecitello Has Fled the Country, But Officers are After Him.

Mejk Swenekafew, a Slav, living in the neighborhood fo the Columbia coal mine, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded by John Pecitello, during a quarrel near the mining camp Thurs-day morning. Swenekarew was shot in the right breast and in the right thight and is now at his home in a precarious condition. His death is expected at any moment.

The two men were companions, it appears. They became involved in a quarrel over the possession of a pet dog, while walking towards the mining ca and in a heat of rage Pecitello drew, 32-calibre revolver from his pocket and shot Swenekafew twice. One bullt entered the right breast, making an ugly wound, and the other pierced the upper part of the right leg. The wound in the breast is a serious one and will probably prove fatal.

Pecitello made his escape after the shooting and has not been seen around the mining camp since. So far, no legal action has been taken, but the officers are on the outlook for the man who did the shooting, and he will probably be apprehended in a short time.

Swenekafew is a single man and had been working as a laborer near the Columbia mines for some time.

It is semi-officially stated that another rural free delivery mail route for this county has been secured, through the influence and recommendation of Congressman B. B. Dovener, together with the assistance of the patrons who reside along the proposed route.

The route begins at Wilsonburg, extends to Katylick, then to Sardis, thence up Flag Run, thence down Isaac's creek and up Gregory's run to the s house, thence over to the headwaters of one branch of Lambert's run, thence to Gregory's run, thence down Johnson's fork of Limestone creek to the begin-ning, covering a distance of over 20 miles and taking the carrier almost a day to make the trip.

The free delivery of mail over this route will, it is stated, begin October I next. It is possible that the Sardis and katylick postoffices will be abandoned, although this has not been officially ab-

The prospective service will be ad-vantageous to all residing along this route and will be highly appreciated by

The great American trouble is indi-gestion, largely a result of the great American habit of hurry. Hastily swal-lowed meals re probably the greatest cause of indigestion. The stomach is given more than it's share of work said is weakened. The first thing to do in correcting the trouble is to stop fast eating. The next thing is to take a good digestive tonic to strengthen the diges-tion and enrich the impovershed blood. Such a tonic is Walther's Poptonized Port, a simple combination of pure per Port, a simple preparation of pure pepsin and good port wine, to be had at al idruggists. T. C. GIVENS BADLY CUT AND STABBED BY ALBERT ECHARD AT ADAMSTON TUESDAY

MEN WERE QUARRELING AND AN-GRY WORDS LED TO FIGHT WITH SERIOUS RESULTS.

Albert Echard, a workingman, employed at the soal tipple of the Fairmont & Clarkaburg Coal company's Adamston mine, seriously cut and stabbed T. W. Givens, a fellow workman, in a quarrel between the two on the hill above the mine entrance Tuesday night about 8 o'clock. Echard was arrested shortly afterwards by two constables, who chased him a distance of a mile or so down the railroad track, and placed in jeil to await brial. The constables had to fire their revolvers at the fleeing men to induce him to stop.

Echards and Givens got to quarreling over a woman, it is said. Angry words led to blows and in the heat of the quarrel. Echard pulled his pocket knife from red Echard pulled his pocket knife from his pocket and, opening the big blade, made a lunge for Givens. The latter was stabbed two times, once in the up-per part of the left arm and once in the left breast, just above the heart. The wound above the heart, although not a very deep one, is serious. The muscles of the arm were cut and jagged in a had manner.

Givens was carried to his home nearby by men who rushed to the scene. Doc-tors were summoned and rendered medieal attention.

Shortly after the cutting, D. W. Giv-ens, the injured man's father, procured a warrant from Magistrate S. W. Gor-don, charging Echard with feloniously stabbing and cutting with intent to kill. The warrant was placed in the hands of Constable McClung and Edgell, who went immediately to Adamston to find Ech-

The officers found Echard near the mines about 9 o'clock but when the latter saw the officers coming he took out on a dead run up the railroad track. The officers ran after him and a lively chase ensued. After running for quite a distance, Constable McClung fired his revolver into the air three or four times to scare the escaping man. Echard slow-ed up and the officers paced him under arrest. He was brought to the city on a street car and placed in fail to await
